SUN COUNTRY AIRLINES® ANNOUNCES NEW SERVICE BETWEEN SEATTLE AND ANCHORAGE

Network expansion brings Sun Country's nonstop route total to 50

MINNEAPOLIS (March 8, 2018) – Sun Country Airlines today announces new seasonal nonstop service between Seattle-Tacoma International Airport (SEA) and Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport (ANC). The new route begins in time for the summer vacation season giving Sun Country customers the opportunity to experience all that Seattle and Anchorage have to offer.

In celebration of this new service, Sun Country is offering introductory fares as low as $109* one-way. Flight and hotel vacation package deals are also available through Sun Country Vacations®.

Seasonal nonstop flights between Seattle and Anchorage will be offered June 7 through August 20, 2018, operating five times a week on Mondays, Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays.

Sun Country already offers convenient nonstop service to both Seattle and Anchorage from its hometown of Minneapolis/St. Paul.

“Both Seattle and Anchorage are terrific vacation destinations of ours,” said Jude Bricker, president and CEO of Sun Country Airlines. “We look forward to connecting the two and bringing our Midwest hospitality and convenient nonstop service to more passengers through this route network expansion.”

For full schedule, Sun Country Vacations® flight and hotel packages, and low fares visit suncountry.com.
