

CONTACT:

Megan Miller, mmiller@aci-na.aero, (202) 861-8080

Eileen Denne, edenne@aci-na.aero, (202) 293-4537

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport's Morton V. Plumb, Jr. Elected to ACI-NA 2008 Board of Directors

Kansas City, MO (October 3, 2007) — At its General Membership Business meeting today during the ACI-NA 16th Annual Conference and Exhibition in Kansas City, MO., Airports Council International-North America (ACI-NA) announced the election of its 2008 officers and new members of its Board of Directors. Morton V. Plumb, Jr., Airport Director, Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport; was elected to serve on the Board beginning January 1, 2008.

“I look forward to working closely with Mort and the other elected Board members in 2008. I am confident that their combined experience and talents will prove invaluable to ACI-NA and the airport industry in the upcoming year as we embrace new challenges and opportunities,” said Greg Principato, ACI-NA president. “Along with our continuing Board members, Mort and the others elected to the Board of Directors are an integral part of ACI-NA and we are fortunate to have them representing airport interests.”

In addition, three other airport leaders were elected to new, three-year terms as members of the Board. Newly elected Directors include: Mark VanLoh, Director of Aviation, Kansas City Aviation Department; David. N. Edwards, Jr., Asheville Regional Airport Authority; and Mark Reis, Managing Director, Seattle-Tacoma International Airport. In addition, Nuria I. Fernandez, Chief Executive Officer, City of Chicago, Department of Aviation, was elected to a special two-year term. Reginald K. Milley, President and CEO, Edmonton Regional Airports Authority, was re-appointed to the Board for a three-year term after serving a partial term of service.

###