FOOD & BEVERAGE OUTLETS REOPEN AT ANCHORAGE AIRPORT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 21, 2008

(ANCHORAGE, Alaska)— Food concessions at the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport are now open after a short closure to accommodate construction work on the A and B concourses.

Starbucks has reopened in the south terminal located next to the Alaska Airlines ticketing kiosks. This location will provide easy access for travelers and visitors to the Anchorage Airport. Starbucks is the leading retailer, roaster and brand of specialty coffee also offering a variety of fresh food items.

The Upper 1 restaurant and lounge has also reopened. New to Upper 1 is the award winning Famous Famiglia Pizza – a New York favorite and the official pizza of the NY Yankees. In addition to pizza, Upper 1 serves stromboli, sandwiches, salads and appetizers. The breakfast menu includes breakfast pizza, breakfast platters and pastries.

Hudson Euro Café has opened in the C concourse serving deli items such as smoked salmon wraps and mango smoothies. Mooselaneous retail store has reopened in the C concourse next to gate C2. They now feature Girls ‘n Pearls wearable art along with other Alaskan artist-made jewelry.
