Sun Country to Launch Service Between Las Vegas and Anchorage this Summer

Jan. 8, 2019 (Anchorage) – Beginning May 18, low-cost air carrier Sun Country Airlines will launch nonstop seasonal service between Las Vegas and Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport (TSAIA).

Sun Country announced they will initially operate on Saturdays, but starting May 29 will add a Wednesday flight and beginning June 5 will offer four nonstop flights per week on Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday.

“Las Vegas is a strategic market for Anchorage and we are excited Sun Country will open this new nonstop destination,” said Jim Szczesniak, TSAIA Manager, “We have been working to secure nonstop flights between Anchorage and major hub markets. Nonstop flights stimulate growth and this new route will help continue the growth we saw last summer.”

For more information and fares, visit www.SunCountry.com or call 651-905-2737.

Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport is an important gateway to the city of Anchorage and the State of Alaska. More than 5 million passengers fly through ANC annually. Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport is responsible for approximately 15,577 airport & community jobs, earning $1 billion. That's 1 in 10 jobs in Anchorage.

The Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities oversees 239 airports, 10 ferries serving 35 communities, more than 5,600 miles of highway and 731 public facilities throughout the state of Alaska. The mission of the department is to “Keep Alaska Moving through service and infrastructure.”
