Lake Hood Seaplane Base

Fact Sheet

- Combination of Lake Hood and Lake Spenard, 2 natural lakes that were joined by man-made channels in 1939.
- 500 Floatplane Slips
- 100 ski-equipped airplanes use Lake Hood in winter
- Currently 10 year wait list for floatplane slips (approximately 300 people are on the waiting list)

  $25.00 per year to stay on waitlist

- 500 Wheeled Airplane Tie-downs
- 70,000 aircraft operations per year
- Gateway to the wilds of South Central Alaska

  Provides access to Hunting, Fishing, Lodges, Flightseeing Operations

- Considered the largest seaplane base in the world