CURRENT STATUS

The environmental analysis, a Categorical Exclusion (CE), was completed in January 2024. Project design is complete, and the project is expected to be advertised for construction this spring. The advertising date is dependent on the receipt of federal funding and final execution of utility agreements. Once remaining funding and agreements are in place, the project will be advertised promptly, with DOT&PF project management being transferred to Construction Project Manager, Jonathyn Tymick, P.E. Substantial construction completion is anticipated this summer, with some work extending into 2027 as needed.
