

Open House and Listening Post Report

On May 28th, the Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities (DOT&PF) held a Listening Post at the Kenai CARRS Safeway and an Open House at the Soldotna Public Library. Over 50 people stopped by the events, asked questions to DOT&PF representatives, and learned more about the project. The community provided helpful information that will assist DOT&PF as they continue to develop the design. One way individuals provided the project team with information was by taking the MetroQuest Survey, still available online, that asks individuals how they think the project should be phased.

If You Missed the Events,

Visit the Online Open House

To view the May 28th Open House meeting materials and leave comments for the project team, just visit our website at kenaispurehab.com/onlinemeeting. The online open house will be available from May 29-June 29.

Take the MetroQuest Survey

After reviewing the Online Open House materials, we want to hear from you! With a limited project budget, we want to know what you think are the top priorities for the Kenai Spur Highway. Please take the MetroQuest survey.
