

2026 Alaska Construction Career Day – Volunteer Registration Form

Alaska Construction Career Day (ACCD) is a unique opportunity to inspire the next generation of skilled workers by introducing high school students to the diverse careers in construction and transportation. This annual event brings together labor unions, construction companies, the University of Alaska, school districts, state agencies, and trade organizations to provide hands-on activities and engaging exhibits that showcase the exciting world of construction.

We welcome enthusiastic volunteers to play a vital role in the success of this event! From setting up the venue and managing the lunchroom to guiding students through activities and keeping the day running seamlessly, your support is essential. Share your time and expertise to help us inspire and shape Alaska's future workforce!
