SETTLEMENT CHECKLIST

Check the following items below that apply to this particular case:

- Deficiencies in approved appraisal that could not be resolved by the Right-of-Way Review Appraiser.
- Improper application of legal principles to the appraisal process used in the approved appraisal.
- Inadequate or conflicting data upon which the approved appraisal was based.
- The competency and effectiveness of an appraiser as a witness for the Department.
- Consideration of issues that are not readily quantifiable.
- Additional available appraisals, including those of the owner.
- Interest payments to which an owner may be entitled under State law.
- Reasonable uncertainty as to the highest and best use of the property before or after the acquisition.
- Complex severance damages or other valuation problems that produce uncertainties as to value.
- Uncertainty of State law concerning the measure or compensability of particular elements of value or damages, or concerning the admissibility of evidence necessary to prove facts at issue.
- Recent Court or Jury awards for eminent domain acquisitions in the area.
- Recent sales or development in the area, not related to the project, that seriously weaken valuations.
- If this case is over two years old, costs to the agency and counsel in preparing and presenting for trial.
- If this case is over two years old, the costs to the public in impaneling a jury, maintaining the court, and other similar expenses.
- Other factors that reasonably justify a settlement in excess of the Right-of-Way Review Appraiser’s Recommendation of Just Compensation. List these factors here:

I hereby recommend settlement of this case in the total amount of $ _____
